

Biography

Chef Cyndie Story, PhD, RD

Chef Cyndie Story is a registered dietitian, with a Doctorate degree in Food and Lodging Management. Chef Cyndie has over 20 years experience as a school foodservice director, coordinator, consultant, and trainer.

Today, Chef Cyndie works as an independent edutainer providing hands-on and demo-style quantity food production classes, as well as food safety workshops for school foodservice professionals at all levels. Chef Cyndie is the author of “Producing Produce” a fresh fruit and vegetable fabrication training manual for school foodservice managers and assistants. She wrote and produced a 1 hour food safety orientation DVD for the State of Florida entitled “Serve it up safely every day.”

Chef Cyndie is dedicated to educating school foodservice professionals throughout the U.S. Her overarching goal is to provide training that compels participants to always seek to improve their school foodservice program.